
Navigation plan

The groups of teams participating in the world cup will be listed in a navigation bar under the logo on the home page. This navigation bar will be on every page. Click on the name of any group, and it brings you to a page with more information about the teams in that group. This information includes a picture of where the country is, and more facts about that group of teams.

Click the logo at the top to bring you back to the homepage.